Nevada Interim Household Treatment Program for PFAS

Protecting Nevadans Drinking Water:

The Nevada Division of Environmental Protection offers the Interim Household Treatment Program to provide free water filtration units to public water system customers in small and disadvantaged communities, to address the emerging contaminants like PFAS and manganese.

On April 22, 2026 the Hillcrest Manor Water Users Association (HMWUA) approved participation in the Interim Treatment Program!

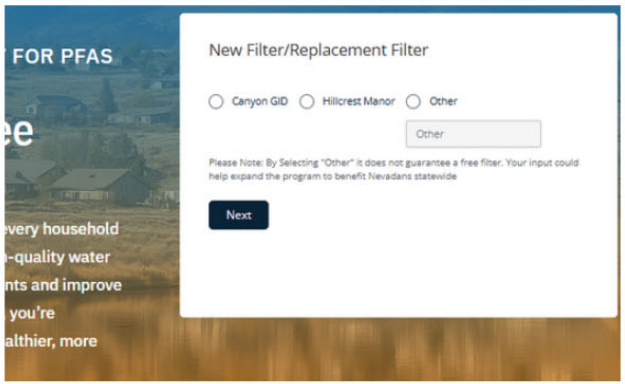
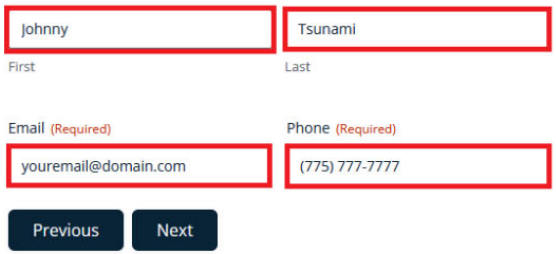
Step-by-Step Instruction for Online Application:

1. Scan the provided QR Code with your mobile device, or if you're on a computer, type the following URL into your browser: NDEPwaterfilters.org

2. The application will be on the main page. Select "Hillcrest Manor" click "Next".



3. On the dropdown menu, select "Free Filter". Then fill out the other information boxes. Click "Next".



4. Fill out the additional information. Select your method of receiving your filter. This will be either by pick-up, or by delivery. Click "Next".
Note: Your address will be necessary if you select "Delivery" as how you would like to receive your filtration unit.

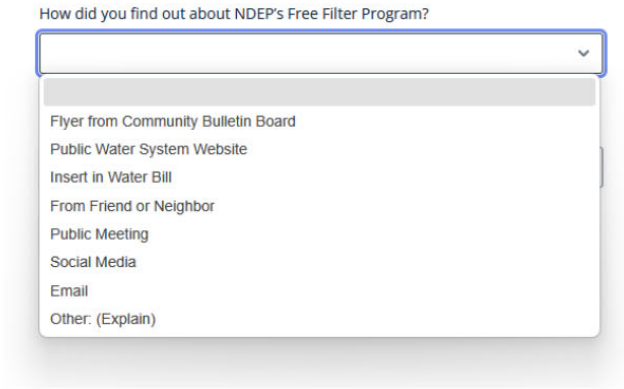
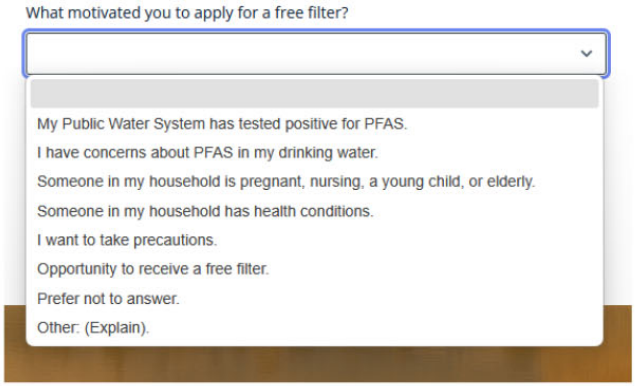
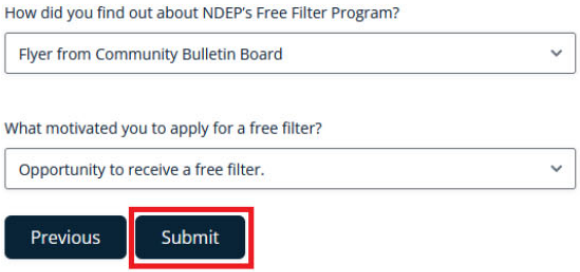
5. The information requested on this section of the application is optional, but appreciated. Information obtained regarding how you heard about NDEP's Free Filter Program will be used for future implementation in other cities in Nevada. Our goal is to provide as many filters to as many Nevadans' possible, and your input can potentially help us grow our program.

Once all required sections have been completed, click "Submit". If you need to go back to change anything prior to submission, you can go to previous sections anytime by clicking "Previous".







6. One submitted, check for a confirmation email at the email you provided on the application.
